On January 14, 2013, the plaintiff, Kelly Juliana Morgan ("Morgan"), lodged a pro se complaint with this court. In addition, she filed what the court construed a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. On February 5, 2013, the court entered an order denying her motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. There has since been no activity in this case and Morgan has yet to remit her filing fee. Consequently, the court ORDERS that this case be DISMISSED without prejudice for failure to prosecute. See Miller v. Benson, 51 F.3d 166, 168 (8th Cir. 1995) ("District Courts have inherent power to dismiss sua sponte a case for failure to prosecute...").

Dated this 8th day of July, 2013.
